

Jesus, I Surrender to Your Will

Words & Music by
Mike R. Schuster

Jesus I can hear You, knocking at my door
I want the life You offer me, Your peace and so much more
So come into this life of mine, and make my heart Your home
Help me, Lord, to clean it up, and make it like Your own

Open all my closets, every hidden store
As I release to Your control
And find my life in Yours

Jesus, I surrender to Your will
Jesus, I surrender to Your will
As You work and lead and guide
I'm laying down my pride
Jesus, I surrender to Your will

Jesus in the quiet, I confess my need
How I need You in my life, to be the one that leads
So help me, Lord, to follow in all I say and do
Even as I live and breathe, I want to be like You

Open all my closets, every hidden store
As I release to Your control
And find my life in Yours

Jesus, I surrender to Your will
Jesus, I surrender to Your will
As You work and lead and guide
I'm laying down my pride
Jesus, I surrender to Your will

Jesus, I surrender to Your will
Jesus, I surrender to Your will
As You work and lead and guide
I'm laying down my pride
Jesus, I surrender to Your will

Jesus, I surrender to Your will
Jesus, I surrender to Your will
