

Together

Words & Music by
Mike R. Schuster

We acknowledge You as the One, Creator of all things
We praise You as our Guide and Friend, our soon and coming King
We thank You as our blest Redeemer, the One who set us free
The One who works within our lives to bring us unity

We acknowledge You as the One, Creator of all things
We praise You as our Guide and Friend, our soon and coming King
We thank You as our blest Redeemer, the One who set us free
The One who works within our church to bring us unity

Together we lift our voices
Together we stand here now and sing
Together we raise our Hallelujahs to the King above all kings
Together we lift our voices
Together we stand here now and sing
Together we offer up our praises to our Savior, Lord, and King

We want to be where You would have us, to speak as You would speak
We want to share the love You've shown us with those around who seek.
So help us, Lord, to love each other, to find our common ground
Fill us with Your Holy Spirit, that Your grace may abound!

CHORUS

We invite You, Holy Spirit, to work among us now
Revive our church, transform our lives,
Oh Lord, we humbly bow
We invite You, Holy Spirit, to work among us now
Revive our church, transform our lives,
Oh Lord, we need You now!
