Blest Be The Tie That Binds

VerseText: John Fawcett, 1782; Additional Lyrics & Music by Mike R. Schuster & Anthony Packwood

D Blest be the tie that binds	G our hearts in C	A hristian love;
D	G	Α
The fellowship of kindred r	minds is like to	that above.
G D/F [#]	Α	(A)
Before our Father's throne G	we pour our a D/F #	rdent prayers; G	A
Our fears, our hopes, our a	aims are one, c	our comforts and our	cares.
Bm A	G	Α
As we hear Your call, Bm	_	from this place A
May we know Your h	eart, and live o / F # A	ur lives by faith Bm
As we spread Your lo G	ove, as we show D/F # A	w Your grace, //
share Your hope with D	a world in pair	1
Bless us Lord.
D	G	Α
We share each other's wo	es, our mutual G	burdens bear;
And often for each other flo	ows the sympa A	thizing tear. (A)
When we asunder part, it g	gives us inward	` '
G D/F [#]	G	A
But we shall still be joined	in heart, and h	ope to meet again.
